Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction is an intensive life enrichment program that combines comprehensive training in a variety of mindfulness meditation techniques with a host of mindful movement and healthy lifestyle practices. A common fruit of this training is a well-established, daily mindfulness practice. The format is experiential, interactive and limited to 20 participants. 20 CEUs for some mental health professionals. Some partial scholarships are available.

- Upcoming program: Thursday evenings – September 27 – November 15, 2018, 6 – 8:30 pm at Earth & Spirit Center. Please join us for a free intro at Earth & Spirit Center on Sept 13 from 6 to 7:30 pm.

Facilitators: John Shealy, PhD and Jordan Dye, MSW are a married couple who together have over 45 years of experience practicing and teaching mindfulness. John is a licensed psychologist, Jordan, a certified social worker. Both are trained yoga instructors and live a healthy, balanced lifestyle. The safe, peaceful space they hold for each other and for the group provides a container for establishing a daily meditation practice while promoting personal and relational growth.
